Our community

We care about our community and making your home a great place to live. We want you to live your best life, in an environment that's loving, caring and supportive.

Uniting is passionate about helping all people to lead happy and healthy lives. You and your family have the security of knowing our qualified team are here to assist 24-hours a day.

Experts in care

If you choose Uniting Annesley, the level of care and support you receive will be based on your needs. We can help you with personal care (such as getting dressed) and many of the day-to-day jobs that have become tricky to manage by yourself. We take the stress out of life by assisting with the cooking, cleaning and laundry, and if your needs change we can assist you with additional health or care support.

Uniting is committed to helping you lead a happy, healthy life and staff at Uniting Annesley are specially trained to provide mental health support. You and your family have the added security of knowing we're here to assist 24-hours a day.

About Uniting

At Uniting, we believe in taking real steps to make the world a better place. We work to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice.

Our team provides aged care, disability support, community services and chaplaincy. As an organisation we proudly engage in social justice advocacy about issues faced by the people we serve. We celebrate diversity and welcome all people regardless of their lifestyle choices, ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation or gender identity.

A not-for-profit organisation, Uniting is the single largest provider of aged care in New South Wales and the ACT. More than 14,000 people access our aged care services, which include independent living, aged care homes, respite, in-home and community care, and Healthy Living for Seniors programs.

The Uniting team is here to help with your inquiries and to talk about your needs.

If you need accommodation urgently, our admissions officers and service staff are on hand to provide immediate assistance.
