About Uniting

At Uniting, we believe in taking real steps to make the world a better place. We work to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice.

Our team provides aged care, disability support, community services and chaplaincy. As an organisation we proudly engage in social justice advocacy about issues faced by the people we serve. We celebrate diversity and welcome all people regardless of their lifestyle choices, ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation or gender identity.

A not-for-profit organisation, Uniting is the single largest provider of aged care in New South Wales and the ACT. More than 14,000 people access our aged care services, which include independent living, aged care homes, respite, in-home and community care, and Healthy Living for Seniors programs.
