

Feel right at home

Uniting Wontama

Our community

Our residents are part of a vibrant and active household where the daily rhythm and fabric of life is decided by you and those you live with.

We hold true to a belief that we are working in your home – rather than you living in our workplace. It sounds such a simple thing, but being at home is about having the freedom to make choices. That means you maintain control over decisions that make up the pattern of your day.

Fancy a sleep in? We respect your choice to live life your way, not adhere to our routine.

If you enjoy cooking and want to play your part in preparing dinner, then you can. It is about you living your best life, the way you want to live it. Joys and sorrows are shared. Your family is part of our family.

Experts in care

The approach to life in Uniting Wontama is based on the latest thinking in residential aged care. It recognises the effect a true sense of home has on health and wellbeing.

This begins with the design of the environment. Every household has its own kitchen – the traditional heart of the home where people can come together. You are free to be who you are at Uniting Wontama.

You and your family can feel safe knowing our compassionate and qualified staff are on hand 24 hours a day.

About Uniting

At Uniting, we believe in taking real steps to make the world a better place. We work to inspire people, enliven communities and confront injustice.

Our not-for-profit services are in the areas of aged care and disability, community services, and chaplaincy and we get involved in social justice and advocacy issues that impact the people we serve. As an organisation we celebrate diversity and welcome all people regardless of lifestyle choices, ethnicity, faith, sexual orientation or gender identity.

We believe in choice. Uniting is the largest not-for-profit provider of aged care in New South Wales and the ACT, with more than 15,000 people in our services. We offer aged care homes, independent living, care in the home and in the community, healthy living for seniors and respite care.

Uniting is the services and advocacy arm of the Uniting Church in NSW and ACT.
